The position

We welcome applications from outstanding candidates for a tenure-track position in the field of Financial Accounting. We seek candidates who investigate how the role of financial reporting and disclosure practices affect the behavior of stakeholders such as investors, analysts, regulators, other market participants, or society. We invite applicants with an analytical, empirical (archival), or experimental methodological focus. Successful candidates are expected to have a strong research background and to publish in the leading international top-journals in accounting. Successful candidates will be involved in teaching financial accounting as part of the faculty's study programs.

We offer a stimulating research environment including various research activities and PhD-programs coordinated by the Oskar Morgenstern Doctoral School (<https://oskar-morgenstern-doctoral-school.univie.ac.at/>) and research funding opportunities. <https://ais.univie.ac.at/>

Your academic profile:

- Doctoral degree/PhD
- Two years of international research experience during or after doctoral studies
- Outstanding research achievements, excellent publication and funding record, international reputation
- Gender and diversity competence
- Experience in designing of and participating in research projects, ability to lead research groups and acquire third-party funding
- Enthusiasm for excellent teaching and supervision at the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral level

We expect the successful candidate to acquire, within three years, proficiency in German sufficient for teaching in bachelor's programmes and for participation in university committees.

We offer:

- the opportunity to obtain a permanent position and eventual promotion to full professor; the initial contract as Assistant Professor is limited to six years, after positive evaluation of a qualification agreement the contract becomes permanent as Associate Professor; Associate Professors can be promoted to Full Professor through an internal competitive procedure.
- a dynamic research environment
- a wide range of research and teaching support services
- attractive working conditions in a city with a high quality of life
- an attractive salary according to the Collective Bargaining Agreement for University Staff (level A2) and an organisational retirement plan
